

Catwoman and Wonder Woman Swap

In a high-security vault deep under Gotham city.

Catwoman drops in from a vent in the ceiling...

Catwoman looks around the vault and as expected, it is just as her source had said it would be. There were no guards or people to disturb her tonight, and she finally had the vault to herself.

Catwoman had received word that Batman was out of the city on a mission, and at the same time, his do-gooding friend Superman was off planet for a few days. That left only Robin and Batgirl to defend Gotham City, which gave Catwoman the perfect opportunity to raid the vault.

A close-up shot of Catwoman in her iconic black, form-fitting suit. She is wearing her signature black mask with white whisker-like patterns. She is looking down at a large, faceted green gemstone she is holding in her right hand. The background is a blurred indoor setting with some lights.

Catwoman unlocked one of the private safety deposit boxes with her claws and found a shiny gem that caught her eye.

Meow!

Such a shiny object for me to play with!

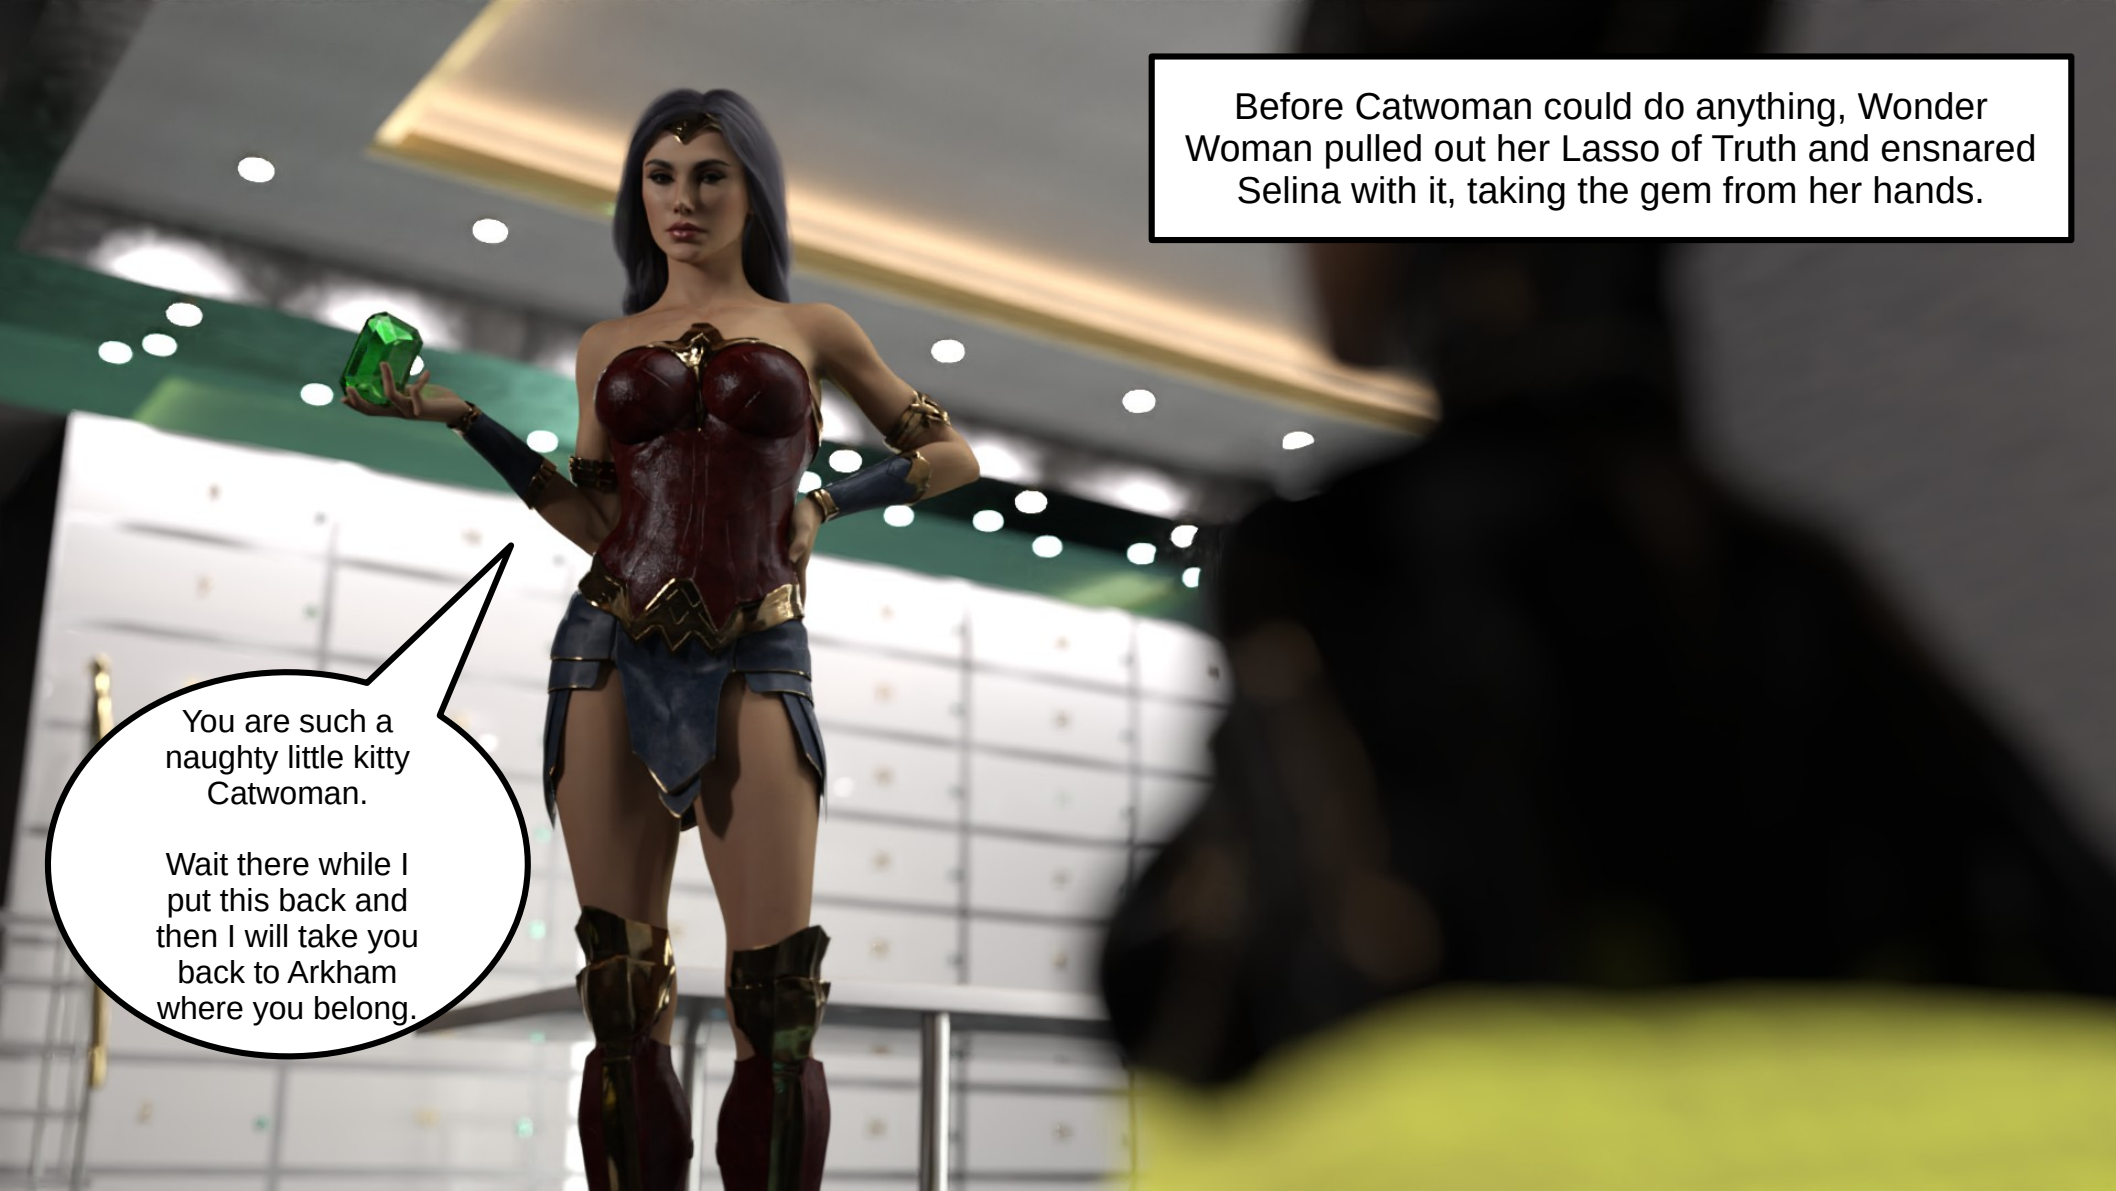

That doesn't belong to you Catwoman, put that back where it belongs and I'll let you off easy.

Hiss!!!

Damn it, Wonder Woman, why did you have to spoil my fun?

Before Catwoman could do anything, Wonder Woman pulled out her Lasso of Truth and ensnared Selina with it, taking the gem from her hands.

You are such a naughty little kitty Catwoman.

Wait there while I put this back and then I will take you back to Arkham where you belong.

Catwoman was under the power of the Lasso of Truth and was unable to fight it. She remained where she was, but even so, she struggled as best she could against it.

Hmm, what's this?

The lasso has come loose?

Puuurfect!

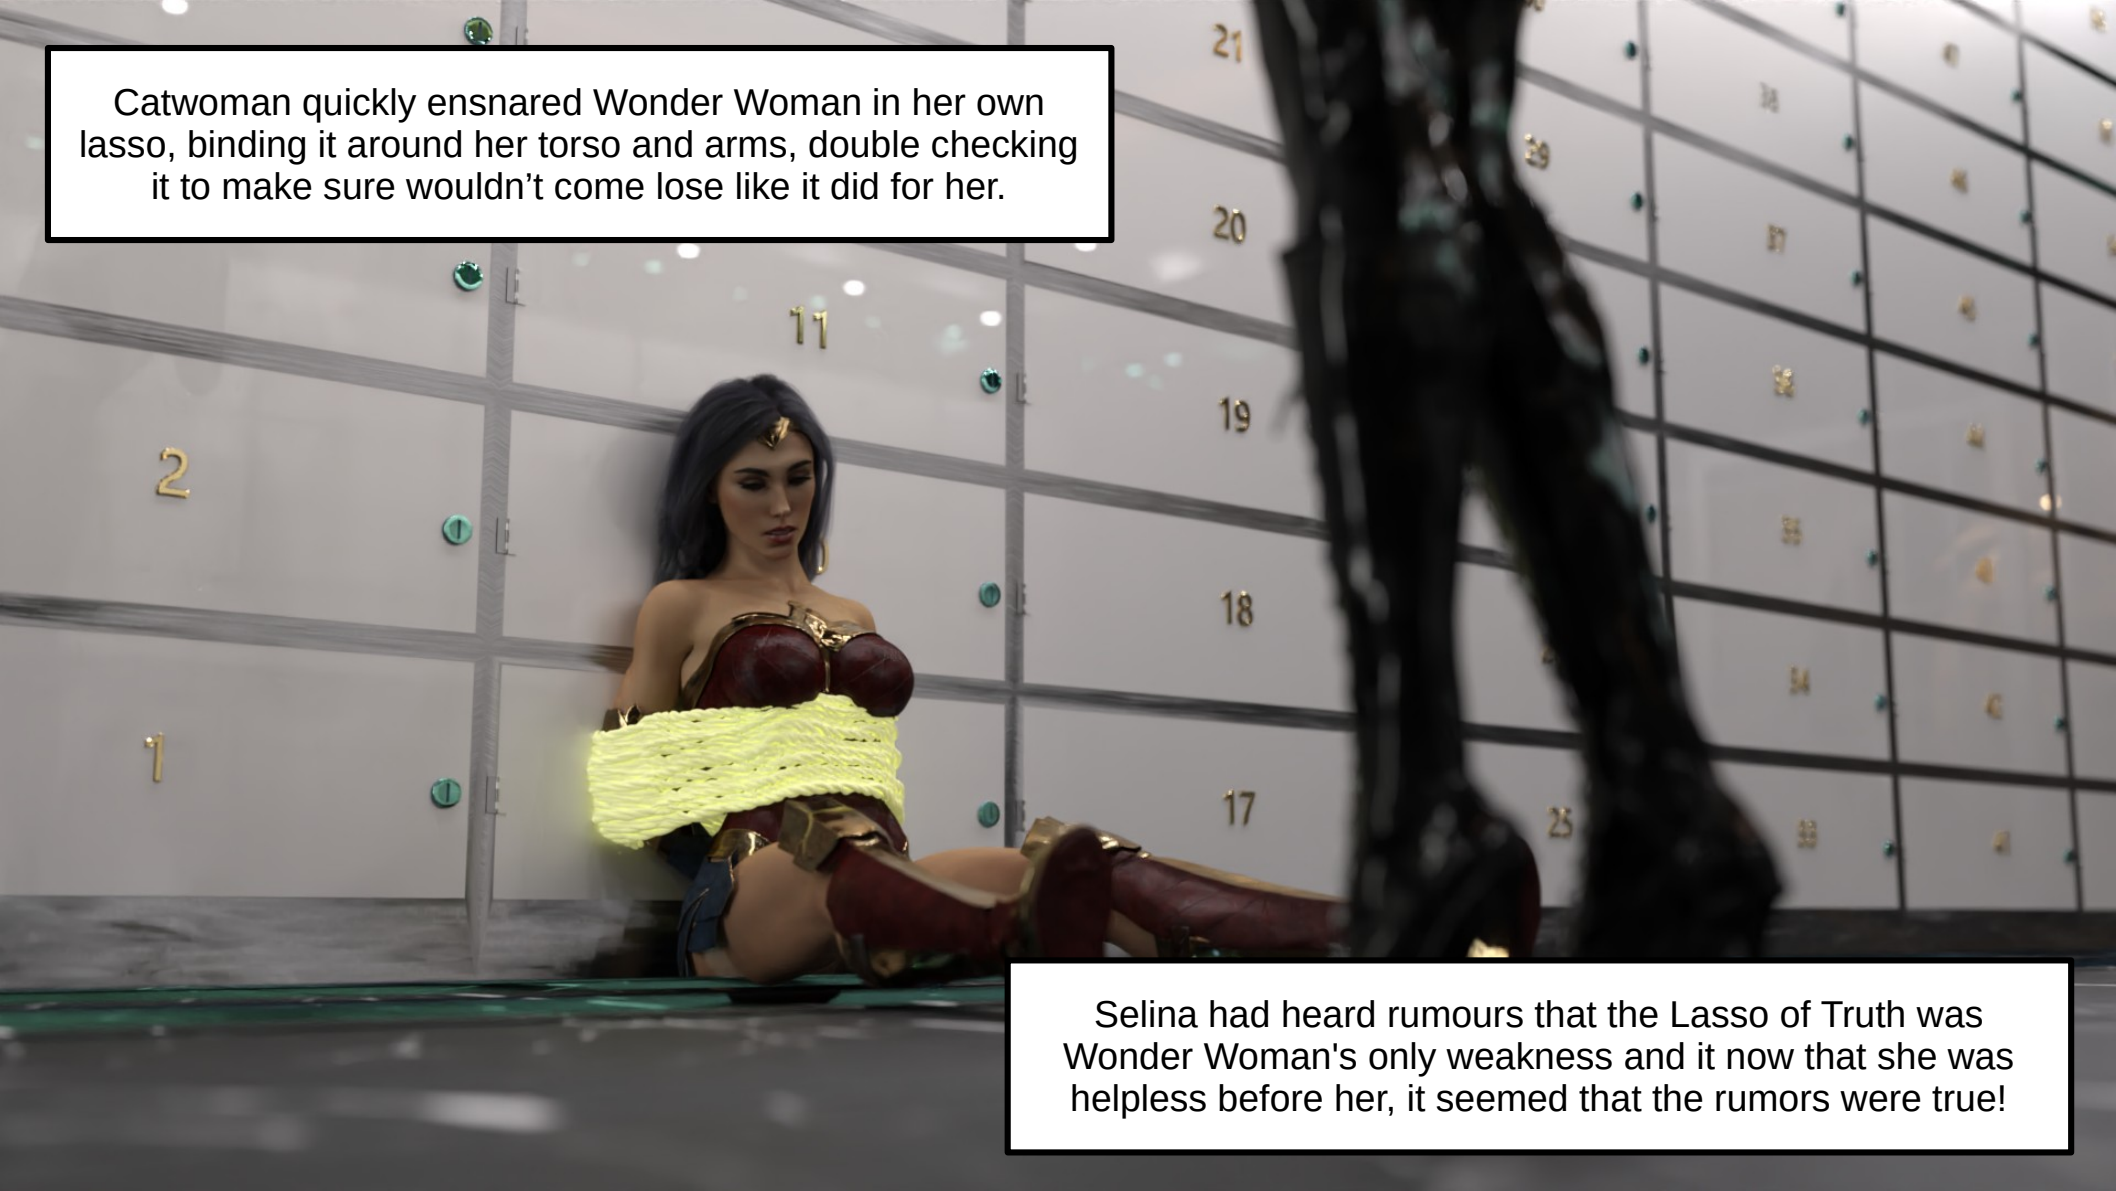

Catwoman managed to free herself and slip from the bonds of the lasso.

Freed from its power, she sprang up and leapt at Wonder Woman, the Lasso of Truth in her hands, catching Diana by surprise from behind.

What!?!
How did you escape?

Catwoman quickly ensnared Wonder Woman in her own lasso, binding it around her torso and arms, double checking it to make sure wouldn't come lose like it did for her.

Selina had heard rumours that the Lasso of Truth was Wonder Woman's only weakness and it now that she was helpless before her, it seemed that the rumors were true!

Now that the most powerful woman in the world was lying at her feet, a new thought came to Selina... had anyone ever captured Wonder Woman with her own lasso before? She couldn't help but think of the possibilities...

Listen carefully, you are falling into a deep sleep.
You have no intention of running away, let alone resisting me.

In fact, you cannot resist me,
even when I remove the lasso,
you will not disobey any order I give you.

Do you understand?

Now, I have some questions and you will answer them truthfully and fully. I want you to use your brilliant mind to serve me to the best of your ability. Will you do that for me?

Yes.
Even without the lasso, I will obey you.

Yes I will.

Tell me, do you know of any way to make our appearance, even our fingerprints, be identical?

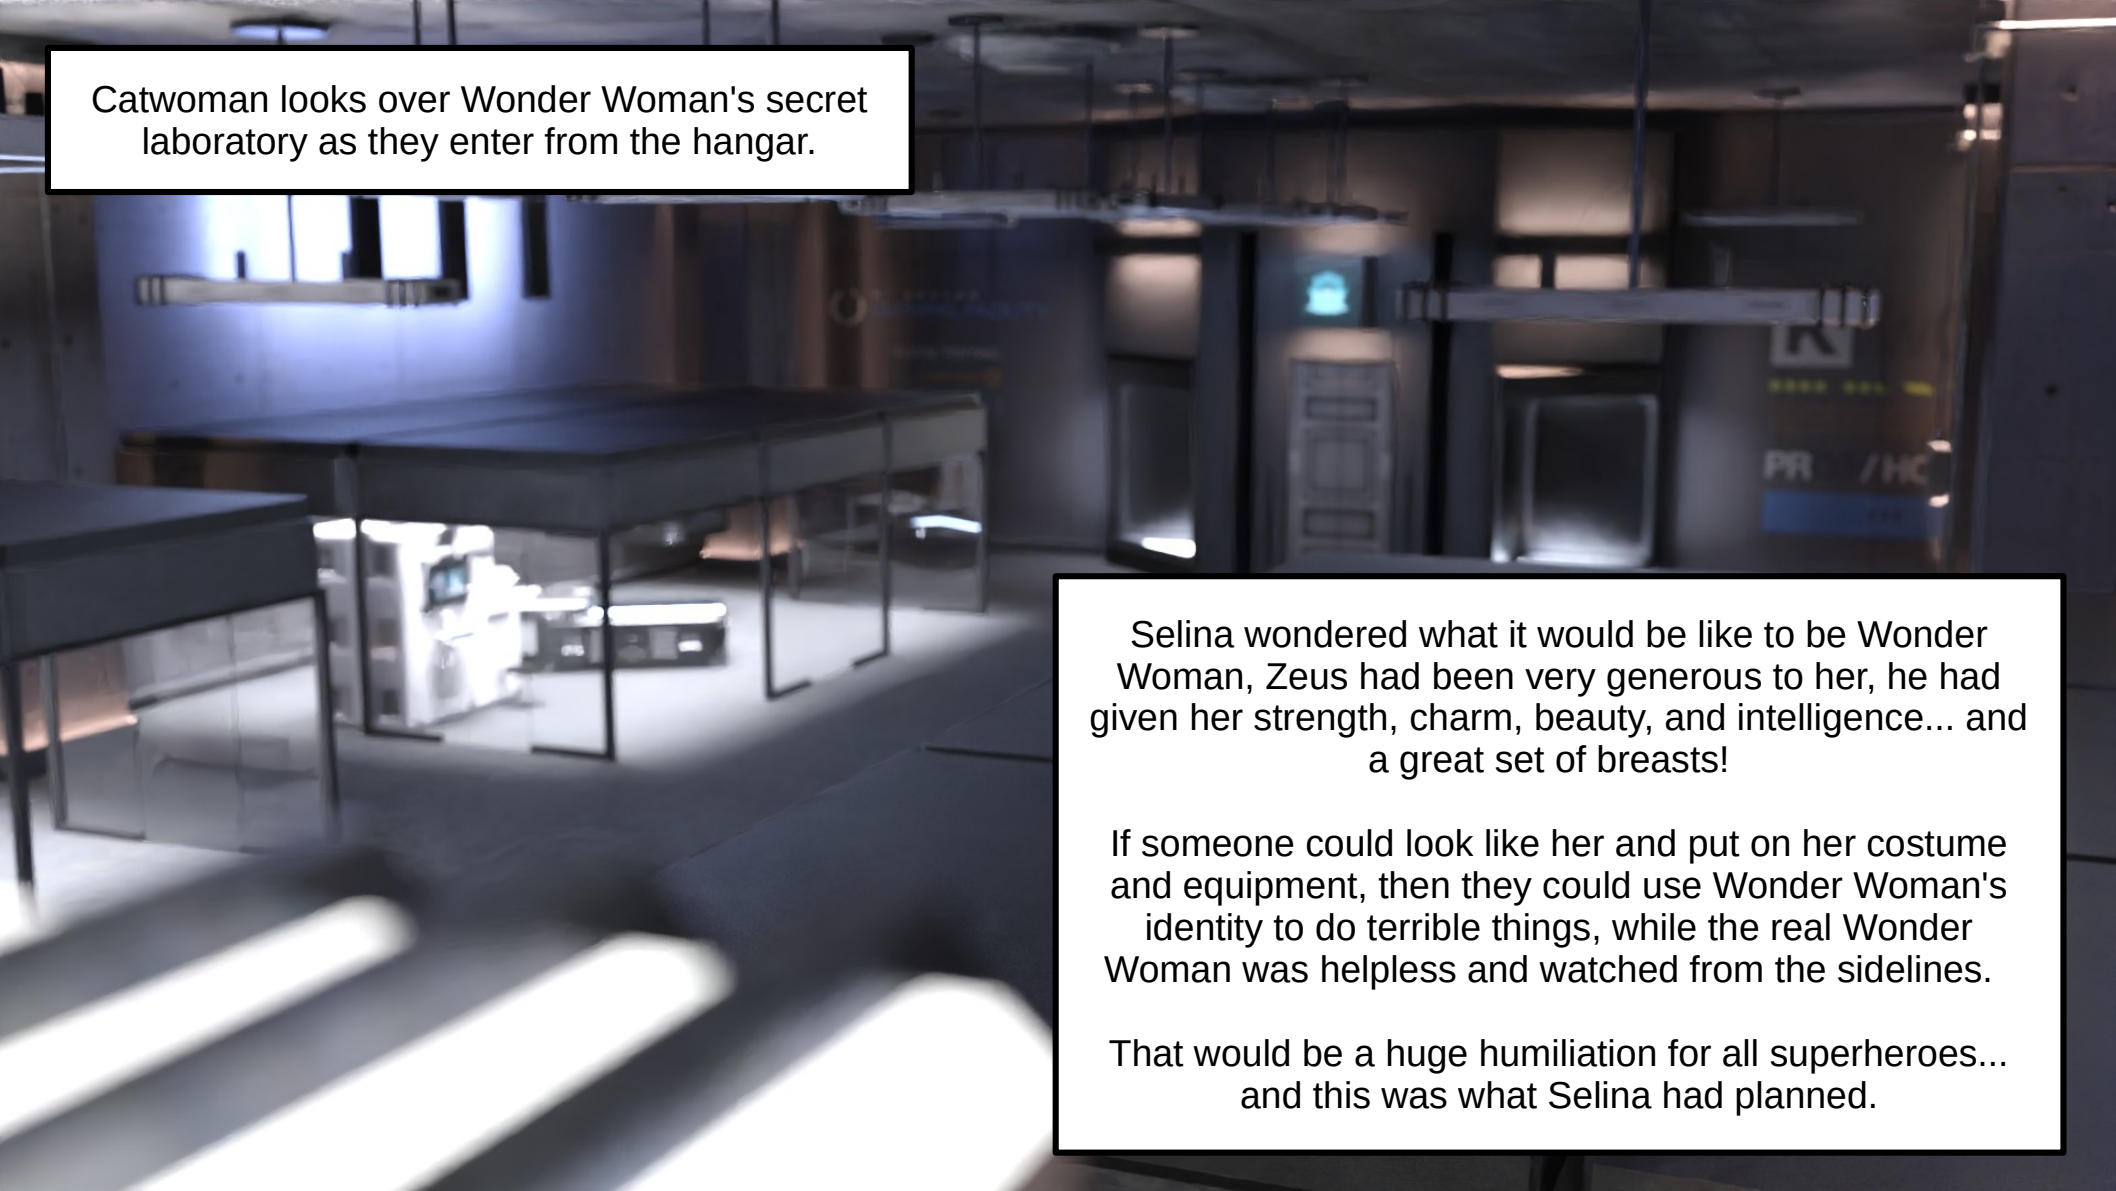

Yes, there is a machine in my secret laboratory that can do that.

Good, how far is it from here?

It is about two and a half hours away in my invisible jet.

Puuurfec, let's go.

A two-and-a-half-hour flight in Wonder Woman's invisible jet later...

A futuristic laboratory with glass tables and equipment. The room is dimly lit with blue and white lights. There are several glass-topped tables with various pieces of equipment underneath. In the background, there are doors and a glowing blue light. The overall atmosphere is high-tech and mysterious.

Catwoman looks over Wonder Woman's secret laboratory as they enter from the hangar.

Selina wondered what it would be like to be Wonder Woman, Zeus had been very generous to her, he had given her strength, charm, beauty, and intelligence... and a great set of breasts!

If someone could look like her and put on her costume and equipment, then they could use Wonder Woman's identity to do terrible things, while the real Wonder Woman was helpless and watched from the sidelines.

That would be a huge humiliation for all superheroes... and this was what Selina had planned.

Wonder Woman guides Catwoman over to a large machine.

How does this machine work?

Put your hand on the pad to change your fingerprints. I will operate the computer with my voice as it will only respond to me.

A scene from the movie 'Catwoman' showing Selina Kyle in her black, form-fitting suit and mask. She is standing in a high-tech control room, looking towards a computer workstation. The room features a large monitor displaying data, a keyboard, and various control panels. The lighting is dim, with blue and white highlights from the equipment.

Selina takes off her glove and sets her hand on the machine.

Good, now give it the command to change my fingerprints to yours.

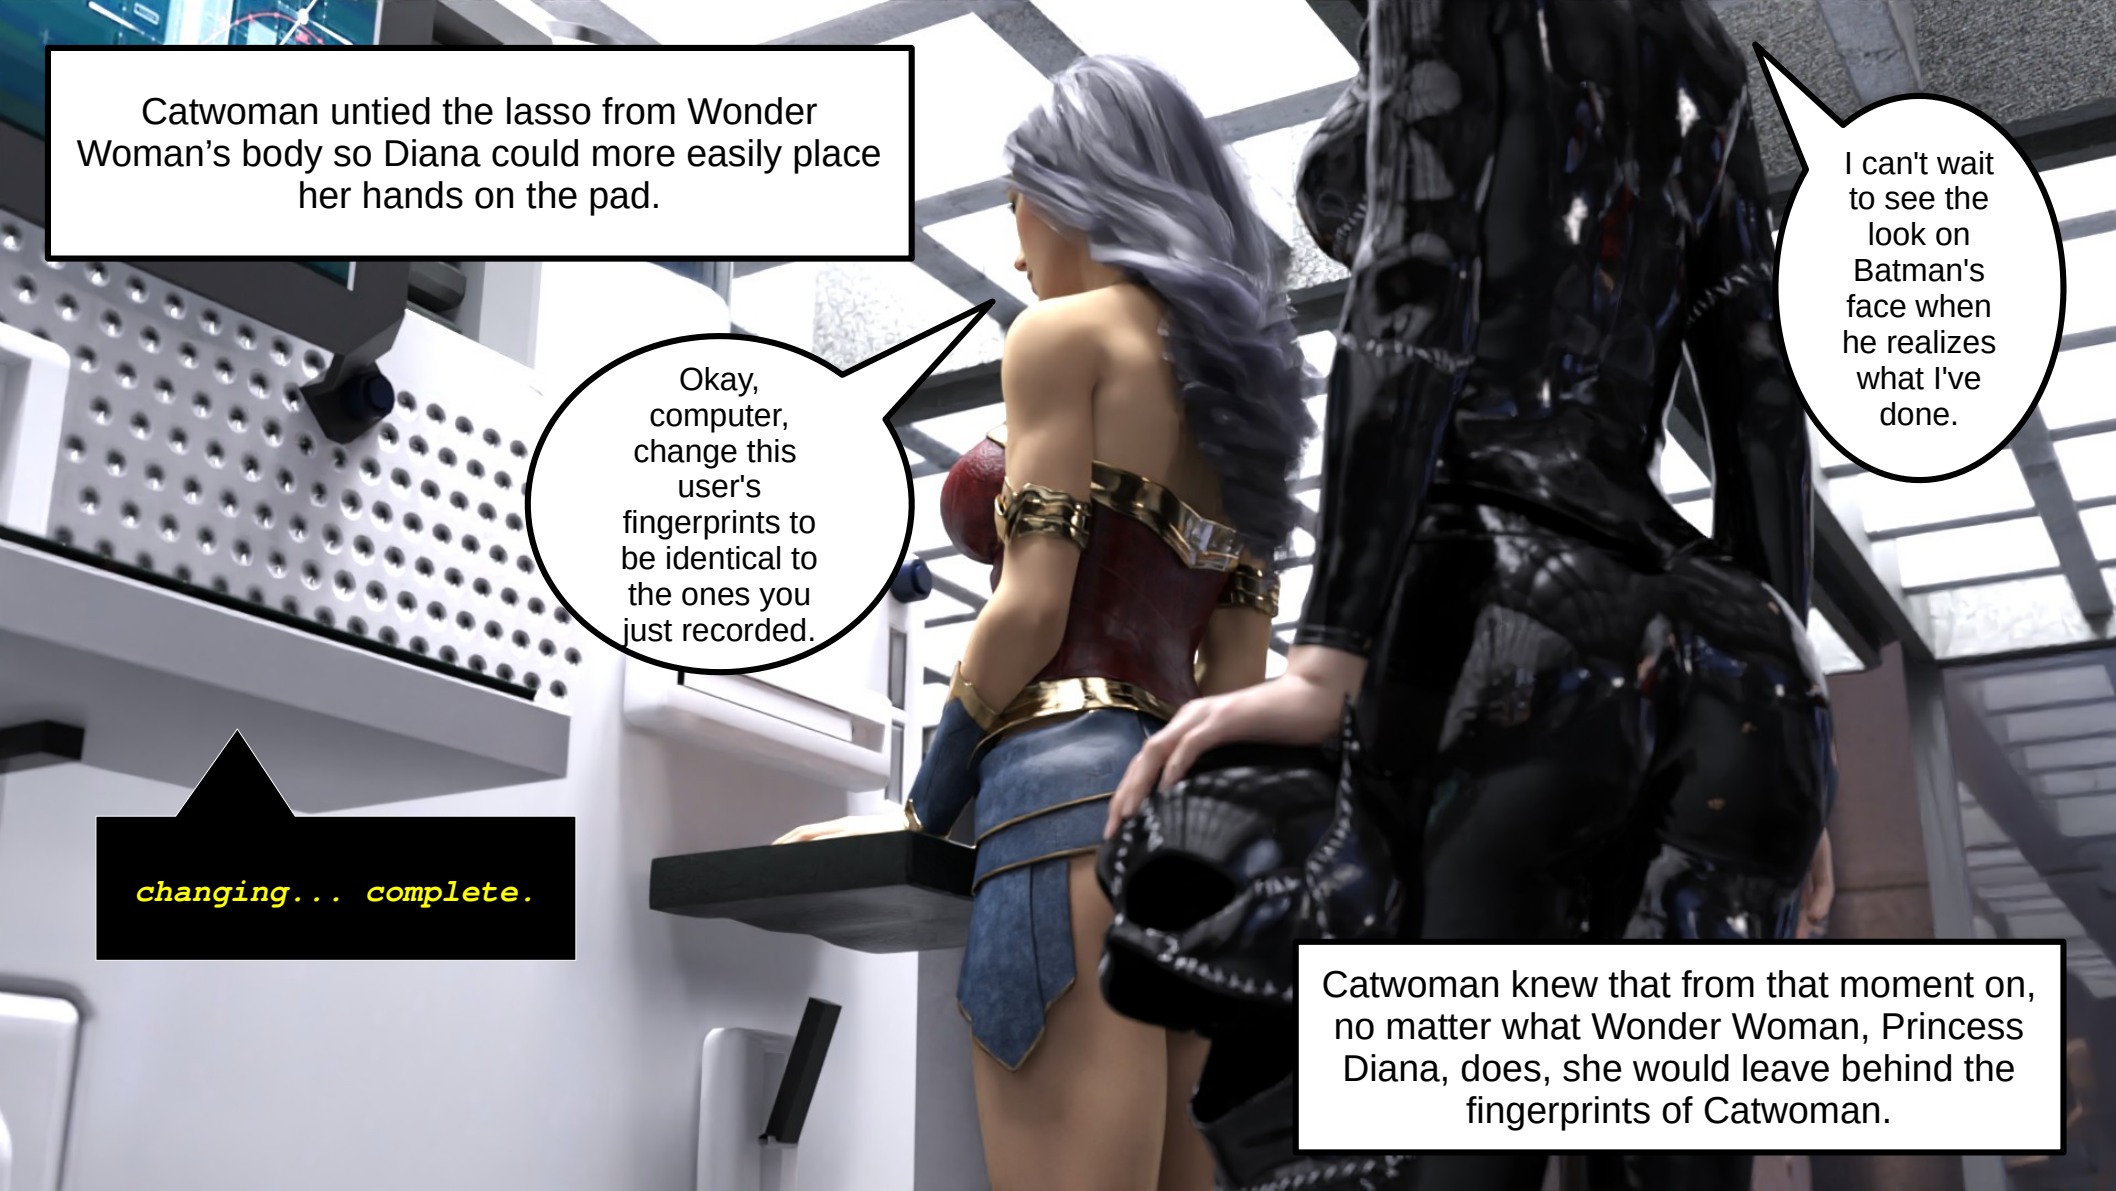

Okay, computer, record this user's fingerprints, and then change them to be identical to mine.

recording... complete.

changing... complete.

Now it's your turn, Wonder
Woman.

A 3D-rendered scene from a video game. Catwoman, with her signature long, flowing purple hair and wearing her red and blue costume with gold accents, stands in a high-tech, futuristic environment. She is looking towards a large, black, muscular statue of a man, likely Batman, which is partially visible on the right. The background features white perforated panels and structural beams. Three speech bubbles and a text box are overlaid on the scene.

Catwoman untied the lasso from Wonder Woman's body so Diana could more easily place her hands on the pad.

Okay, computer, change this user's fingerprints to be identical to the ones you just recorded.

I can't wait to see the look on Batman's face when he realizes what I've done.

changing... complete.

Catwoman knew that from that moment on, no matter what Wonder Woman, Princess Diana, does, she would leave behind the fingerprints of Catwoman.

Catwoman walked over to the large pod that was connected to the machine they had just used.

Diana, does this pod change our appearance and voice?

Yes, you just have to lie down in it and I will operate it with my voice again.

Selina laid down in the pod and the pod placed a helmet on to her head.

Okay, computer, record this user's appearance, and then change it to be identical to mine.

recording, complete.

change started...

Selina felt the pod scan her body, then with a faint burning sensation all over her skin, the changes started to happen.

change complete.

After a few minutes, the helmet was removed and Selina opened her eyes and knew it had worked.

Amazing... it really worked!

As Selina spoke, Wonder Woman's clear and resonant voice came out. Not only did she have Wonder Woman's face, she also had her unique voice.

Selina looked down and on her chest were brand new breasts, bigger and plumper, exactly like the ones on Diana's chest.

Selina stepped out of the pod and Wonder Woman took her place in it.

Okay, computer, change this user's appearance to be identical to the one you just recorded.

change started...

Selina smiled deviously as the computer obeyed her voice now that it was identical to Wonder Woman's. She then walked over to the glass wall and admired her new face through the reflection, while the real Wonder Woman laid in the transformation pod undergoing her change.

Selina had stolen many unique and valuable things in the past, but this was the first time she stole someone else's appearance, let alone breasts.

Now all the things that made Wonder Woman, Wonder Woman, belonged to Selina as well. The face that stared back to her was that of Wonder Woman, the face that had fascinated countless people was now hers.

Selina's green eyes had turned into Wonder Woman's unique blue, she would miss her green eyes, but what the heck, she was about to give them to Wonder Woman anyway.

change complete.

Selina turned and looked at Wonder Woman who had completed her transformation. Staring back at her now was her former face, green eyes and all.

Who has bigger breasts
now?

You do.

Hahaha,
that's right,
now let's continue.

In order to complete her plan, Selina took Wonder Woman over to an examination table behind the pod and had her lie down on it. Then Selina took off her clothes so that she could exchange them with Wonder Woman.

Selina looked down at Wonder Woman lying on the table, instead of seeing the superheroine she once was, all she saw was a dark-haired woman at her mercy... just a normal woman.

However not just any woman, because now her face was identical to the infamous Catwoman. In fact from her new appearance, the person lying on the table was Catwoman.

Now it was time for Selina to dress herself, and she decided to start with Wonder Woman's tiara. The iconic symbol of Wonder Woman was called the Starlight Crown, and she removed it from Diana's head before putting it on her own.

Next were Wonder Woman's breastplate and boots, Selina didn't expect that the invulnerable armour would be so light in her hand, but it was.

The boots fit her feet perfectly and Selina quickly got used to the lower heels that they had. She tried to take a few steps and they didn't pinch her feet at all, in fact they felt amazing.

Her red, blue and gold breastplate pushed up her magnificent breasts so much that her deep cleavage blocked the view of her lower body, she couldn't help but marvel again at Wonder Woman's amazing body. Her new breasts were so much better than her old ones, but more than that, Wonder Woman never dreamed that someone could steal them from her!

Selina put on the bracers, a sudden feeling of power filled her body, and she even found herself levitating just off the ground.

Amazing...
Wonder Woman's powers must come from these!

Selina looked down at Wonder Woman, with her now smaller breasts, below her. They were not as impressive as her new ones, but not completely lacking in a sex appeal either.

Uneasy with her new powers, Selina carefully returned to the ground where she was more comfortable. She walked towards the large mirror on the wall to get a better look at herself now that she was fully dressed.

Even though she was mentally prepared, she was still shocked by her current visage. She looked over herself from head to toe, checking every inch to make sure she was the perfect likeness of Wonder Woman. The results were so good that no one but Wonder Woman herself would be able to tell any difference.

With Wonder Woman's identity and power, Selina could now do anything she wanted to do and no one would be able to stop her! The thought of using Wonder Woman's body to seduce Batman brought a smile to Selina's lips and then she couldn't help but to laugh out loud at the thought.

Selina returned to Wonder Woman with her old Catwoman costume in her hand.

Come on Diana, time to get dressed.

Catwoman's old costume fit Diana's new body easily, giving little resistance to get on her, and easily zipping up her back. Diana's entire body was that of Catwoman's now, her old costume was tightly wrapped around it, and she looked to everyone except Selina herself to be Catwoman.

Selina was thrilled by the success of her plan and laughed out loud again. Judging from Diana's appearance, she was Catwoman. The body and the tights once more belonged together, how could it have worked out any more perfectly?

Next up were her gloves and claws. Putting them on Diana was much more difficult than the costume had been, but she managed it in the end.

Finally Selina started to put the black high heels boots of her old costume on Diana's feet to finish dressing Diana in her old Catwoman costume.

Diana's feet slipped into the boots smoothly, just like they did when Selina herself had worn them.

Selina finished dressing Diana, it had been a big project, but now no matter who saw Diana, they would only think that they were looking at Catwoman. There was no trace left of Wonder Woman that would betray Diana's true identity.

It was finally time to wake Diana up.

Selina had Diana stand in front of the mirror and then wrapped the Lasso of Truth around her once more.

Diana, you can wake up now...

Diana blinked several times as she woke up and then finally looked at her reflection in shock.

What have you done to me!?!

Before she could even try to break free, Diana heard her new voice, the voice of Catwoman.

Then she heard another voice, her own voice coming from beside her.

You will remain quiet and will not make a sound unless answering a question or being told to speak. Do you understand?

Diana felt the power of the Lasso of Truth compel her and she spoke the only word she could.

Yes.

Great, now look at yourself in the mirror and answer my questions.

Do you recognize the costume you are wearing?

I recognize it.

Be more specific.

I'm wearing Catwoman's costume.

Do you recognize the voice that is coming from your lips?

Yes, the voice sounds like Catwoman's.

Do you recognize the face that you see in the mirror?

Yes, the face looks like Catwoman's.

So who is the only person who wears Catwoman's costume and sounds and looks like Catwoman?

Only Catwoman wears Catwoman's costume.

Only Catwoman sounds like Catwoman.

Only Catwoman looks like Catwoman.

So, then you must be Catwoman, right?

Catwoman?
...no, I am
Wonder Woman... but I look just like Catwoman... sound just like Catwoman...
maybe I am
Catwoman?
...no I can't be Catwoman, I am
Wonder Woman...

Wonder Woman is very strong, isn't she?
Wonder Woman could break out of any bonds that held her easily, couldn't she?
But you can't can you? So a weak woman like you couldn't be Wonder Woman right?

I guess...

Diana's strong will battled fiercely against the power of the Lasso of Truth.

A screenshot from a video game showing two female characters in a modern, brightly lit interior. On the left is Catwoman, with long, straight, light purple hair and green eyes, wearing a black, form-fitting, textured bodysuit with a yellow ruffled collar. On the right is Wonder Woman, with short dark hair and a gold tiara, wearing her iconic red, gold, and blue costume. A large speech bubble from Wonder Woman is positioned above her head, and a smaller one is next to Catwoman's head.

And look in your eyes, Wonder Woman's eyes aren't green, Catwoman's are, right? And your breasts, they're so small in comparison to Wonder Woman's aren't they?

Y...Y...Yes.

I see a superheroine...
I see Wonder
Woman.

Now look at me now and tell me, who do you see?

Look at how strong I am, so much stronger than you.

I must be Wonder Woman, right?

And me being Wonder Woman means, you can't be... so you must be Catwoman, right?

Yes, you are Wonder Woman and I am Catwoman!

Diana's face lit up as the epiphany hit her, ending her resistance. There was no more hesitation at all when she spoke now.

Of course, I'm proud to be Catwoman, the sexist and greatest thief in the world! One day Batman will be mine! Meow!

Meow!

And as we all know, Catwoman is a cunning female villain, right?

She likes crime, she likes to ignore the law, but at the same time, she is hopelessly in love with Batman, right?

Diana's mind started to fill in the blanks and smoothly integrated into her new Catwoman personality, finally letting out Catwoman's trademark laughter.

A scene from a video game showing Catwoman tied up with yellow rope and talking to Selina Kyle. Catwoman is on the left, wearing her black suit and purple hair, with her mouth open as if speaking. She is bound with thick yellow rope around her waist. Selina Kyle is on the right, seen from the back, wearing a red dress and gold arm cuffs. The background is a modern, industrial-looking interior with a grid ceiling and large windows.

Meow!

Of course I know where my secret lair is! The question is how do you know it?

You hide all of your equipment and valuables in the Cat's Lair, right Catwoman?

Through a secret entrance by the chemical plant just outside of Gotham City, right?

I know everything about you, Catwoman but don't worry, I won't tell anyone your real name is Selina Kyle.

Hiss!!!

How do you know my real name?!?

The new Catwoman was in shock at the revelation that Wonder Woman knew her secret identity.

Meanwhile Selina, the new Wonder Woman, was thrilled that Diana had accepted Catwoman's real name as her own.

Raow!!!

I'm going to tear you apart!

Don't have a hissy fit Selina, you'll be free to tear things up soon enough and then you can get into all kinds of trouble.

First though, you know that I, Wonder Woman, am a hero you can never defeat. So from now on, no matter what, you will avoid me at all costs. If you do encounter me in the future, you will be unable to do anything but run away out of pure instinct.

Yes, you are too powerful for me to defeat!

I must run away.

In a moment you're going to go to sleep again, and when you wake up you will forget all about meeting me or being interrogated by me tonight, but all the things you have learned from me will remain with you. You will continue to search for as many jewels as possible from the vault and take them back to the Cat's Cave.

Now, close your eyes and go back to sleep so you can return to your life of crime as Catwoman.

Selina fell into a deep sleep and Selina unwrapped the lasso from the new Catwoman's body before she attached it to her belt as the old Diana remained perfectly still.

I guess I'm going to have to take a new name since I've given away my old one. In which case I guess it's only fair that I use her old one since I gave her mine! Oh I do love the sound of it, Princess Diana, Wonder Woman!

Now it's time to get Catwoman, and myself, back to the scene of the crime.

Ending One: The Thread of Fate

Another two-and-a-half-hour flight in Wonder Woman's invisible jet later...

Hiss!

Meow?

What happened? I feel so drowsy... fortunately it looks like no one came in to find me during my cat nap! I have to get up quickly and get back to work.

The newly christened Diana floated just above the floor outside the vault, practicing with her new powers while she waited for Catwoman to awaken.

It seems everything has gone according to my plan.

Diana suddenly feels a little weak and drops to her knees.

Wait... my plan?
Why would I plan for a crime to happen?
What on earth am I thinking?
This is not like me...

Diana shakes her head to try and clear the confusion from her mind.

Oh right, I used to be Catwoman, but now, I am the embodiment of justice, I am Princess Diana, and I am Wonder Woman! Even if I am not going to arrest her today, I still have to stop Catwoman from committing a crime!

A woman dressed as Catwoman in a black catsuit with a mask and ears is crouching in a room filled with lockers. She is leaning against a gold-colored metal pole. The lockers are white with gold numbers. A large black rectangular object is in the foreground.

Purrrr...

Look at all these fabulous little trinkets that I'll be happy to take home with me...

Suddenly Catwoman hears footsteps from behind her, they were too heavy for Batgirl and the last time she checked Robin didn't wear heels...

Times up kitten,
no matter how much you want them, those don't belong to you.

Catwoman cursed softly under her breath. She got into a fighting stance but it was just for show. She knew Wonder Woman was too powerful, she wasn't someone she could fight, she had to run away.

Meow!

Damn it, Wonder Woman, why did you have to spoil all my fun?!

With an elegant back-flip, Catwoman distanced herself from Wonder Woman in preparation to run. Her movements were so skillful and precise, as if she had always moved like this.

Hiss!

Stop and face me
Catwoman!

I'm afraid I won't just stand here and let you catch me! Goodbye, Wonder Woman...

~Meow~

A full-body photograph of Catwoman in her iconic black catsuit, crouching in a vault. She is wearing a black mask with pointed ears and has her hands on the floor. The vault has a metallic, textured wall and a dark floor with some faint markings. In the background, there are some lights and a green glow.

Fortunately, Catwoman had studied all the ways in and out of the vault while planning her heist. As long as she didn't try and take Wonder Woman head-on, she'd have no problem escaping.

Catwoman easily scaled the wall with her claws, quickly getting to the top.

Ha!

This height is not a problem for a cat like me!

Sorry, Wonder Woman, your efforts will be in vain today!

Throughout the entire encounter, the former Wonder Woman had no doubt about her identity. She believed that she was the real Selina Kyle, the notorious thief from Gotham City...
Catwoman.

Wonder Woman paused and watched Catwoman slip out of sight.

Her movements are so skillful, it seems that her body has completely transformed into Catwoman's.

Yes!!!

From now on, I am the real Wonder Woman!
Princess Diana of Paradise Island!

Wonder Woman floated up from the floor and glided towards the exit of the vault.

Now the question is will I continue to fight crime tomorrow, or have some real fun?

bracers had tried to instill in her.

End.
